1 BE IT PROPOSED BY THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT AND CONSTITU-
2 TIONAL AMENDMENT COMMITTEE:

3 That there be a new Article on General Government to 4 read as follows:

5
6 ARTICLE

7 GENERAL GOVERNMENT

8 Section 1. SEPARATION OF POWERS. The power of the 9 government of this state is divided among three distinct
10 branches--legislative, executive, and judicial. No person
11 or persons charged with the exercise of power properly
12 belonging to one branch shall exercise any power properly
13 belonging to either of the others, except as in this 14 constitution expressly directed or permitted.

15 Section 2. CONTINUITY OF GOVERNMENT. The seat of 16 government shall be in Helena, except during periods of 17 emergency resulting from disasters or enemy attack. The 18 legislature may enact laws to insure the continuity of 19 government during a period of emergency without regard for 20 other provisions of the constitution. They shall be 21 effective only during the period of emergency that affects 22 a particular office or governmental operation.

23 Section 3. OATH OF OFFICE. Members of the legislature
24 and all executive, ministerial and judicial officers, shall 25 take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, before
26 they enter upon the duties of their offices: "I do
27 solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, protect 28 and defend the constitution of the United States, and the 29 constitution of the state of Montana, and that I will 30 discharge the duties of my office with fidelity (so help

1 me God)." No other oath, declaration, or test shall be
2 required as a qualification for any office or public
3 trust.

4 Section 4. INITIATIVE. (1) The people may enact laws
5 by initiative on all matters except appropriations of 6 money and local or special laws prohibited by this con-
7 stitution.

8 (2) Each initiative petition must contain the full 9 text of the proposal. Each shall be signed by at least 10 five percent of the qualified electors in each of at 11 least one-third of the legislative representative districts
12 and the total number of signers must be at least five 13 percent of the total qualified electors of the state. A 14 petition shall be filed with the secretary of state at 15 least three months prior to the election at which it will 16 be voted upon.

17 (3) The sufficiency of the initiative petition shall 18 not be questioned after the election is held.

19 Section 5. REFERENDUM. (1) The people may approve 20 or reject by referendum any act of the legislature except 21 an appropriation of money. A referendum shall be held 22 either upon order by the legislature or upon petition signed
23 by at least five percent of the qualified electors in each
24 of at least one-third of the legislative representative
25 districts. The total number of signers must be at least 26 five percent of the qualified electors of the state. A 27 referendum petition shall be filed with the secretary of 28 state no later than six months after adjournment of the 29 legislature which passed the act.

30 (2) An act referred to the people is in effect until

1 suspended by petition signed by at least 15 percent of 2 the qualified electors in a majority of the legislative 3 representative districts. If so suspended the act shall 4 become operative only after it is approved at an election, 5 the result of which has been determined and declared as 6 provided by law.

7 Section 6. ELECTIONS. The people shall vote on 8 initiative and referendum at the general election unless 9 the legislature orders a special election.

10 Section 7. NUMBER OF ELECTORS. The number of 11 qualified electors required in each legislative repre-
12 sentative district and in the state shall be determined
13 by the number of votes cast for governor in the preceding 14 general election.

15 Section 8. PROHIBITION. The provisions of this
16 Article do not apply to CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION, Article
17 XIII.

18 Section 9. RECALL. The legislature may provide for 19 the recall of all elected officials of the state and local 20 government units.

21 Section 10. GAMBLING. All forms of gambling,
22 lotteries, and gift enterprises are prohibited unless 23 authorized by acts of the legislature or by the people
24 through initiative or referendum.

25 Section 10. GAMBLING. All forms of gambling,
26 lotteries, and gift enterprises are prohibited.

27 Section 11. BOUNDARIES. The sovereignty and juris-
28 diction of the State of Montana shall prevail within the area
29 encompassed by the following boundaries:

30 Beginning at the point of intersection of the 104th

1 meridian of west longitude and the 45th parallel of north
2 latitude, thence clockwise west on said parallel to its 3 intersection with the 111th meridian; south on said meridian
4 to the crest of the Rocky Mountains; northwestward on 5 said crest (the continental divide) to the summit of Lost
6 Trail Pass intersecting there with the southeast end and 7 crest of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence northwestward on 8 the crest of the Bitter Root Mountains and Range to the 9 116th meridian; north on said meridian to the 49th parallel;
10 east on said parallel to the 104th meridian; and south on 11 said meridian to the place of beginning.

1 Report No. XII - General Government

2 COMMENTS ON STYLE, FORM AND GRAMMAR

3 Section 1. The changes in language make plain that 4 the power of government is one whole which is divided into 5 three parts.

6 Section 2. Changes in language clarify and shorten
7 without affecting substance.

8 Section 3. Reordering promotes flow without altering
9 substance.

10 Sections 4 and 5. Reordering and language changes do
11 not alter substance.

12 Section 6. Changes make clear that both initiative and 13 referendum are covered.

14 Section 7. Changes clarify.

15 Section 9 8. Changes emphasize the prohibition.

16 Section ~~10~~ 9. The phrase "local government units",
17 adopted in section 1, Article XI, LOCAL GOVERNMENT, was substituted
18 for "its political subdivisions."

19 Section ~~11~~ 10. The adoption schedule will provide for 20 the deletion of whichever form of the section is not approved
21 by the voters.
